

Nature City Seminar

Showcasing the latest research and best practice case studies to improve WA's capacity to manage, enhance, design, and connect with nature in urban areas.

Supported by Perth NRM

Wednesday 26th June, City of South Perth Community Hall, South Tce, South Perth

Program

8:45 am Registration

9:00 am Seminar commences

12:30 pm Lunch (included)

5:00 pm Seminar concludes

5:15 pm Networking drinks at The Como Hotel, cnr South Terrace and Canning Highway (own cost)

List of Speakers

Alison Ritchie University of Western Australia	Banksia woodlands: 30 years in review
Bruce Webber WA Biodiversity Science Institute	Prioritising solutions for improving urban biodiversity resilience
Christine Allen Greening Australia	Using a whole of metropolitan approach to urban greening
Christine Groom University of Western Australia	Urban living for black cockatoos: hazards and solutions
Christine Richardson Urban Bushland Council WA Inc.	Saving Urban Bushland, piece by piece, year after year, again and again
Ian Toleman City of Kalamunda	To catch a fox: the pest control program at Kalamunda.
Ingrid Sieler Perth NRM	Perth NRM's Community Capacity Survey
Jane Chambers NatureLink Perth / Murdoch	NatureLink Perth
Jason Pitman Perth NRM	ReWild Perth
Joseph Caspersz-Loney Murdoch University	Quenda or rat?
Julia Cullity Parks and Wildlife Service	Looking to the past, present and future: community contributions in caring for bush in the city
Juliana Pille Arnold University of Western Australia	Rediscovery of the presumed extinct Douglas's Broad-headed bee in Perth's northern suburbs, and why it matters
Luisa Ducki Rehabilitating Roe 8 / Murdoch	Roe 8 recovery
Mark Brundrett University of Western Australia	TBA
Peter Mawson Perth Zoo, DBCA	Bush Stone-Curlew Reintroduction to Metropolitan Perth
Richard Hobbs University of Western Australia	TBA
Sean Tomlinson Curtin University, Kings Park Science	TBA
Tom Atkinson Emerge Associates	Can vegetation condition assessment provide a good benchmark for restoration?
Trish Fleming Murdoch University	Foxes in urban bushland – movements, refuge, and diet

Thursday 27^h June, City of South Perth Community Hall, South Tce, South Perth

Program

8:45 am Registration

9:00 am Seminar commences

12:30 pm Lunch (included)

5:00 pm Seminar concludes

5:15 pm Networking drinks at The Como Hotel, cnr South Terrace and Canning Highway (own cost)

List of Speakers

Alexander Saunders University of Western Australia	High resolution remotely sensed imagery and canopy cover
Amanda Kristancic Murdoch University	Bandicoot-in-a-box: Educational resource for teachers and community groups
Bonnie Beal Richardson City of Mandurah	Education in the City of Mandurah
Catrina Luz Aniere Millennium Kids Inc	Green Lab - a youth led project focusing on increasing canopy to cool the planet
Danica-Lea Larcombe Edith Cowan University	Living on a higher floor level is a deterrent to leading a 'naturistic' lifestyle – rethinking design of apartment buildings
Emma Yuen CRC for Water Sensitive Cities	What is a water sensitive city?
Fahimeh Mofrad University of Western Australia	The Importance of Green Infrastructure in Sustainable Development of National Capital of Australia, Canberra
Georgia Garrard RMIT / TSR Hub	Biodiversity Sensitive Urban Design
Hayley Christian Telethon Kids Institute and UWA	TBA
Jana Soderlund Biophilic Solutions, Biophilic Cities, Curtin University	Integrating Nature and the Built Environment through Biophilic Design
Johanna Riddell Bold Park School	Putting more nature into Natureplay
John McBain Australian City Farms and Community Gardens Network	TBA
Kevin Kenneally Western Australian Gould League Inc. @Herdsmen Lake Wildlife Centre	Are we failing future generations? The challenges of promoting natural sciences in a climate of urban expansion, relentless change and digital dominance
Maria Ignatieva University of Western Australia	Urban biodiversity and nature based solutions. Experiences from Europe, New Zealand and Australia
Mick Davis City of Kalamunda	TBA
Natasha Pauli University of Western Australia	Native gardens on street verges: perspectives from residents and ongoing research into the social and ecological values of verge transformation
Susan Prescott Telethon Kids	Nature and Microbes: The importance of biodiversity for personal and planetary health
Yuqi Yang University of Western Australia and CRC for Honey Bee Products	Botanic gardens as unique urban bee habitats and places for interaction with nature

Nature City Seminar

26-28 June, 2019

Supported by Perth NRM

With thanks to our sponsors

And thanks for in-kind support from

City of South Perth, WALGA, FACET, CAM Graphics, WABSI, The University of Western Australia, Edith Cowan University, Murdoch University, National Environmental Science Program Clean Air and Urban Landscapes and Threatened Species Recovery Hubs, Biophilic Cities Australia, Biophilic Solutions